

1. aesthetics_market

THE AESTHETICS MARKET

Minimally invasive treatments dominate U.S. procedure volume—and a few categories drive most of the recent growth...

2. recurring_revenue_engine

THE RECURRING REVENUE ENGINE

Lower-ticket minimally invasive treatments generate scale through repeat, maintenance, and treatment-cycle demand
U.S. | 2024

18.55M

Recurring / Maintenance Volume

$638

Minimally Invasive Avg. Fee

$8,049

Cosmetic Surgery Avg. Fee

MARKET MODEL

Repeat-oriented models dominate procedure volume

PRICE POSITIONING

Surgery commands a much higher average ticket

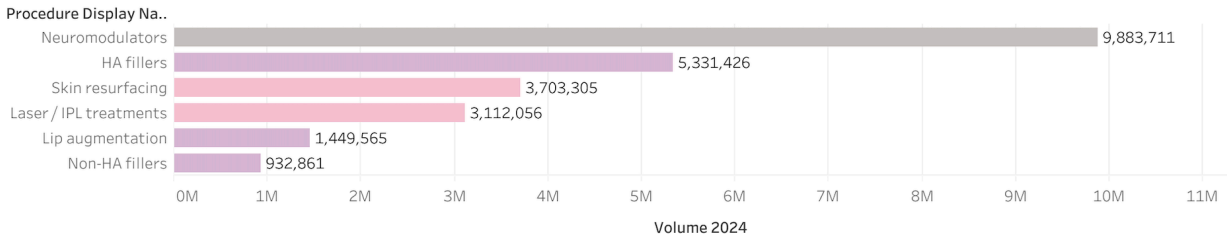

Surgery Commands a Much Higher Average Ticket

Average fee among procedures with available pricing data

PROCEDURE BUSINESS MODELS

High-volume procedures are concentrated in repeat and treatment-cycle models

3. beauty_on_credit

BEAUTY ON CREDIT

Financing can reduce upfront payment barriers for elective medical spending—but affordability depends heavily on credit terms.
U.S. consumer & elective medical financing | 2021-2024

+3.6 pts

BNPL Adoption Increase

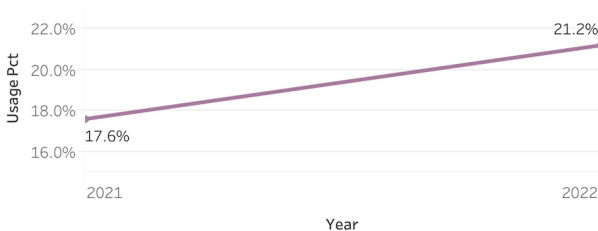

+11pts

Younger Consumer
Exposure Gap

$2000+

Typical Elective Medical Purchase

BNPL ADOPTION

YOUNGER EXPOSURE

FINANCING LANDSCAPE

~50

Elective Medical Transactions at 0% APR

0-36%

Affirm Elective Medical APR Range

27%

Medical Credit Card Average APR

Financing terms span promotional 0% offers through materially higher borrowing costs, making credit structure an important part of the consumer purchase decision.

Sources: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB); Reuters reporting citing Affirm and CFPB. See project documentation for metric definitions and source URLs.